

Hi, I'm Anthea and I'm an artist and printmaker. I run linoprint workshops in my welcoming studio near Wooler, just 7 miles from the Ingram & Breamish Valley. I have developed a series of print workshops inspired by the local area; themes include dark skies, hillsides and local wildlife.

Workshops run from 10am – 2pm by appointment. Please book in advance to avoid disappointment. There will be lots of tea, coffee and cake to fuel your creativity!

- 2 person workshop: £60 pp
- 3 or 4 people: £50 pp
